

LOOKING FOR A GREAT BOOK?

The National Book Foundation Invites Readers of All Ages To Visit

UP ALL NIGHT

A History of the National Book Award Winners and Finalists in Young People's Literature.

ONLINE EXHIBITION
www.upallnightreading.org

Remember what it was like to be a kid, so immersed in a great book that you stayed up past your bedtime voraciously turning pages? Rediscover those books by exploring the 229 titles that have won or been nominated for the National Book Award.

Or, are you a young reader struggling to find a story that speaks to you?

Browse the online exhibition that includes everything from graphic novels to novels-in-verse to find a book that just might tell your story.

Still not sure if this exhibition is for you?

Check out interviews, videos, collages, and other artwork contributed by readers from age six to fifty-six who were inspired by these books.

For literary news and more information on all of our programs, please visit our website at NationalBook.org, "like" us on Facebook, follow us on Tumblr, and join our more than 250,000 followers on Twitter.

National Book
Foundation